It is said that Andrew Carnegie is a poor man; that instead of being worth $150,000,000 or more he now has but a paltry $22,000,000, or scarcely enough to keep the wolf from the door. It does really look as if Mr. Carnegie's wish to die poor may be realized. All the same there are millions of people in this world who would like to be as poor as the Laird of Skibo.

Sunday School Resolutions.

On the evening of January 7, 1914, the spirit of A. H. Lankford took its flight to that other unknown world. Mr. Lankford had been one of the pillows in the Presbyterian church at Paris for nearly half a century, and from Sept. 1892 to Sept. 1896, was superintendent of this Sunday School. He was at all times ever ready to promote the welfare of this church. Be it

Appreciation.

Last Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Biles, of Palestine neighborhood, old subscribers of the Cumberland Telephone Co. were in the city, and before leaving for home they remembered the young lady operators of the Paris exchange with a most unique gift, consisting of confectioneries, fruits and nuts. This appreciated gift is an expression of the characteristic thoughtfulness of this worthy couple. Our telephone operators are fortunate in having them for their friends.
